

JEALOUS NATIONS.

A Conflict Probable Between Brazil and Argentina.

HIGH-HANDED ACT OF RIO GRANDE DO SUL OFFICIALS.

A Vice-Consul Imprisoned at Porto Alegre.—The Trouble May Lead to a Declaration of War—Boundary Dispute in a Fair Way of Settlement—Royal Nuptial announcement.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, March 25.—New cause for trouble between Brazil and Argentina has been given in Porto Alegre, Rio Grande do Sul. A correspondent in Rio de Janeiro telegraphs that the Vice Consul of Argentina at Porto Alegre has been arrested and thrown into jail by order of Gov. Castilho. It is believed that this incident will cause a suspension of the diplomatic relations between Argentina and Brazil. In view of the bad feeling which has for some time existed between the two countries war between them is not improbable. A correspondent in Artigas says the telegraph service from Rio Grande do Sul is interrupted and it is difficult to obtain news of the war. It is rumored, however, that Gen. Saravia has been defeated near Bagé by the Government troops. Details of the reported battle have not been obtained.

A telegram from Buenos Ayres says it is expected that the new treaty between Argentina and Chile will be confirmed and that Boundary Commissioner Vera Sorria will return to Santiago on Saturday. Gen. Roca is said to be working in the Senate against the Government.

The revolutionists in Catamarca, Argentina, were defeated in their first conflict with the National Guard of that State and this will probably end the trouble.

ROSEBERRY TO MARY PRINCESS MAUD. LONDON, March 25.—A marriage of royalty is being arranged for between Lord Roseberry and Princess Maud of Wales. The day in the announcement was due more to the desire of the Princess of Wales than to any affection of the Queen's. Lord Roseberry by his first marriage had £20,000 settled upon him by the Rothschilds, and his estate now fairly clear stands at another £20,000. The Princess has £25,000 a year as a pension. Maud is 46 and the Princess not more than half that age.

AN ALL-NIGHT SESSION. LONDON, March 25.—The House of Commons had a stormy session last night and did not adjourn until 5 o'clock this morning. A resolution was passed by a vote of 276 to 229 that in future all members be paid for their services in Parliament.

Then the fight was taken up on the Committee on Army and Emergencies. Chairman Miller stood firm and withstood all the battering of the opposition. Wm. Hanbury, Consul for Preston, charged the Chairman with falsehood and malice by Sir Wm. Harcourt with the statement: "This is deliberate and baseless obstruction and I will fight you on it to-night." The bill went through after twelve divisions.

DEMOLISHED BY LIGHTNING. PARIS, March 25.—A wrist of explosion has been served on Brandis, the Paris correspondent of the Berliner Tageblatt, who was the alleged author of the article quoted in the Esclair, alleging that Ernest, the son of President Carnot, had received a share of the Parisian bribery money.

CANADIAN ANNEXATIONISTS. MONTREAL, March 25.—It is stated that the French Canadian promoters of annexation to the United States intend to organize regular committees in all the French Canadian centers of the United States with a view to induce the Canadians there to correspond regularly with their friends and relatives here, impressing upon them the advantages to be derived from living under the same and states.

The Paris, the leading French annexation organ in this city, publishes a three-column article headed: "The Decay of the Nation." The writer attacks the system of confederation as the cause of the present decay of the French Canadian element and blames the Roman Catholic clergy for having supported this system.

In this connection it is announced that M. Mercier will deliver his famous lecture on "Annexation and Independence" on the Tuesday after Easter. His sudden departure from Montreal prevented the earlier delivery of this lecture.

ELLIOTT F. SHEPARD DEAD.

The Mail and Express Editor Passes Away Very Suddenly.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Elliott F. Shepard, editor and proprietor of the Mail and Express, died yesterday afternoon at his home, No. 2 West Fifty-second street. His death was sudden and entirely unexpected. He had been placed under the influence of ether by Dr. J. W. McLane and Charles McBurney, whom he had asked to make an examination to ascertain if he was afflicted with stone in the bladder. He had discovered symptoms which led him to believe that he was suffering from a tumor, and he consented to an examination and operation if the surgeons found it necessary. After he had inhaled the drug the surgeon, Dr. McLane, had to remove the tumor. The ether was thrown aside and restoratives were promptly given. These availed but little, as after partly regaining consciousness he fell into a deep stupor and died at 4:30 o'clock.

The certificate of Col. Elliott F. Shepard's death was sent to the Health Department to determine if he had died from an infarction of the heart. Dr. Nacie, Register, would not accept the certificate so worded, and would not grant a permit. He sent the certificate to the Coroner with orders that he make an investigation.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Baron de Aguilar de Andrade, Brazilian Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in Washington, on a special mission, was stricken with apoplexy and paralysis last night and lies at his room in the Arlington Hotel in a critical condition. The Baron had attended the performance at the National Theater, and fell just as he was descending the steps at the entrance on his exit from the building. He was placed in a carriage taken to his apartment in a private residence which he occupies. Dr. Maclester found the apparently had been followed by a stroke of paralysis, and at noon to-day he regarded his condition as very serious.

He is the oldest diplomat in the Brazilian service. He is here as the head of the commission which represents the dependent claim of the Brazilian side of the conflict between his country and the Argentine Republic over the boundary line in the Missions country.

WANTS THE OFFICE TO REOPEN.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 25.—E. O. Graves, President of the Washington National Bank, who was reported by afternoon dispatches yesterday to be the candidate for appointment as Treasurer of the United States, was interviewed last night as to the truth of the report. He said that he had been asked to make private dispatches to corroborate the rumor and that he knew more about his possible appointment than that the dispatch stated.

"We will," said Mr. Mulvihill, with the City Collector. You have concluded, perhaps, that because you succeeded in running him off, and you are now in a position to change the proprietor's name and fooling the Collector with petitions that you can get out of this court all right, by a series of complications, and that the man you sent to the court do not grant a continuance, but when the motion was made an unforced appearance.

The City Collector, Wm. H. Whistler, who arrested Kulage says that the police have been given no orders to do so, and that it is a menace to respectable citizens. The police will arrest any person who attempts to sell liquor here.

The police who arrested Kulage and his partners will be tried for perjury. The police who sold the liquor to Kulage and his partners will be tried for conspiracy.

The decision of Assistant Busey was that the only persons who should receive the punishment are the police, and not their dependents. The amount paid out under the Phillips decision to dependents relatives not entitled to pensions is placed at $1,000.

THEY ARE KNOWN.

The Identity of the Authors of the Woeil Humor Ascertained.

The report published in the Kansas City Star that the wheat in the St. Louis elevator was full of weevils has occasioned no little indignation on "Change." An investigation has been made, and it is believed the persons, two in number, who are responsible for the publication have been discovered. Secretary State of the United States, Mr. B. F. Busey, has been given the names of the persons who furnished the paper with the report, whether these are given in the paper, it is not known. It is asserted, with little difference, as a substantial proof has been obtained to convict the men who sent out the false reports. It is believed that a petition for their expulsion will be presented next week.

UNIONS IN COURT.

Conflict Between Carpenters' Organizations in Chicago.

SWEEPING DECISION OF JUDGE BILLINGS AT NEW ORLEANS.

The Men Who Precipitated Last Fall's Strike Violated the Act Forbidding Restraint of Trade—They May Be Proceeded Against by Merchants—The Ann Arbor Trouble.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 25.—The threatened strike of the carpenters here cast its shadow in the court to-day, when the Carpenters' Union of Chicago filed a bill for an injunction in the Superior Court to restrain the United Carpenters' Council, composed of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, the Knights of Labor Carpenters and the Amalgamated Carpenters, from interfering with the members of the complaining unions.

The Carpenters' Union is composed of seceding members of the other unions and is organized under the same laws and rules. It is not a member of the United Carpenters' Council. The union wants to join as a body, but its members say they will not be taken in as a union, but to join they must disband and come in as members of the organizations now composing the council. This they refuse to do, and say it is a scheme of the other carpenters to maintain their control of the council. The result of the combination is that the council now harasses them and forces their members out of employment with the object of breaking up their union. The members of the union say that a strike is likely to be declared April 3, and they want to be secure from the arrogance that will probably be consequent upon it. They will not take the place of the strikers, but they want to retain the places they now hold.

HARD ON THE UNIONS.

JUDGE BILLINGS' SWEEPING DECISION AGAINST LABOR COMBINATIONS.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 25.—Judge Billings in the United States Court to-day rendered a decision in the suit of the Government against the Amalgamated Council and the officers of the various labor organizations which ordered the general strike in November last. An injunction against the organizations was asked for under the act of Congress prohibiting combinations in restraint of trade.

In an elaborate opinion the court set aside every article of defense which the defense that the acts of the Amalgamated Council and the officers of the union were unlawful in ordering a general strike, and that the members are entitled to injunctions and other relief.

The decision discusses fully the rights of labor and of business in its effects. As a result of the decision a criminal prosecution against the defendants would probably lie, but it is not yet known whether the United States authorities will proceed further against the alleged labor leaders.

FREQUENCY OF ARAB DEVISSES.

How They Behave Themselves in Battle—Absolutely Despotic of Fear.

I think it was at the battle of El Teb I first made the acquaintance of the Mahdist Dervishes, says a correspondent of the London Telegraph. The Fuzzy Wuzzy Hadehawas is the bravest of the brave, but the Dervish is a nervous run crazy. These so-called "holy beggars," self-sworn to devote themselves to the prophet's cause, came at Gen. Graham's square of marines, Highlanders, and stout line-men as if we had been children to be frightened by a cry. Clad in their patchwork rags, with shaved bare heads, many armed with a spear, more than one spear charged in front of the fire-armed square. Down they went by scores and hundreds, but often quietly, and up the running toward us, as though that were the only ones them-pierced through and through with Martin-Henry bullet-holes, come fiercely on, reeling like drunken men, shouting as they carried, stick, lance or sword, towards our ranks, and shouting like devils. And when the Koran, which he held in his hands, was broken, he struck it on the ground, and then charged the worsted Arab footmen with his two regiments of cavalry, their mounted dervishes faced his white horse and boldly charged him. The Arab footmen were the Arabs, who were the most numerous, and when the Arabs broke into Gen. Davis' square, where I was, and temporarily captured our six regiments, on which they thought might have an important bearing on the election. They said that a few days before Kraliman had been offered a deal by Boiler Inspector John J. Burke, who is the Democratic Central Committee man of the Republican Central Committee and the Democratic Central Committee of the Knights of Labor. Burke offered him $300 to allow him to name certain Democrats to Recorder Carlisle as the Republican judges of election, in order that the Democrats might have full control of the count in the ward.

"It's one of their campaign lies—that's all it is," said Boiler Inspector John J. Burke, to-day.

A short time ago, at a meeting of the Republican Central Committee and the candidates of the party, Committee man H. Kraliman of the Thirteenth Ward, Wm. J. Brocker of the Tenth and H. W. Blierman of the Sixteenth, made a statement which they said they thought might have an important bearing on the election. They said that a few days before Kraliman had been offered a deal by Boiler Inspector John J. TO TRY HIS WEAPON

Robert J. Walker Fatally Wounds Jacob Goodflesh.

THE WOUNDED MAN THINKS THE SHOT WAS FIRED DELIBERATELY.

The Two Men Were Drinking Together in a Saloon on Apparently the Best of Terms When the Shooting Was Done—Goodflesh's Condition—Walker's Statement.

Robert J. Walker, saloon-keeper at Seventh and Morgan streets, is confined in the Third District Police Station to-day awaiting an investigation by the police as to whether he shot Jacob Goodflesh of 140 North Tenth street intentionally or by accident. Goodflesh in the meantime lies in the City Hospital at the point of death. The case is a perplexing one and at best can only show that the shooting was the result of Walker's criminal carelessness in handling a revolver.

The wounded man is a carpenter, employed at the Mulholland Planing Mills. He was in the habit of visiting Huskamp & Bros. saloon at 1114 Cass avenue in the evening after working hours, and last night went there and stood talking with Frank Huskamp, who was behind the bar when Walker and another man entered. Walker was under the influence of liquor, and though he was not acquainted with Goodflesh, asked him to have a drink.

DRUNK TOGETHER.

The party of three drank several times, and then Walker began to talk about a new Smith & Wesson revolver he had just bought. Goodflesh remained silent, but had had one for some time, "Well," said Walker, "if you were down at Seventh and Morgan streets where I am you would get yourself one pretty soon. Then he pulled out his new pistol and said, 'I am not lost, but I am a good mark.' I guess I had better take some bullets in it and try it on somebody." He "broke" the revolver and put in five cartridges. At this time he was standing with his back toward Goodflesh, his back being turned the other man, who suddenly then revolver went off and Goodflesh sank into a chair and gasped, "I am shot." Huskamp ran from behind the bar and saw the blood had been on the bottom. The ball entered just below the navel. The saloon keeper ran out and called an officer, who removed Goodflesh to the Dispensary, whence he was taken to the hospital.

Immediately after the shooting Walker took the other two off the pistol and left the saloon. Afterward he went to the Third District Police Station and surrendered himself.

At the Dispensary Goodflesh said that he did not know why Walker had shot him, and that he had without provocation put the pistol close to his body and fired. Walker was then probed and found the hospital was to be identified he expressed the greatest sorrow for what he had done, and declared that this was entirely an accident. He said, "I do not know that the pistol would go off." The wounded man did not seem to believe this, but was relieved of the trouble. In the morning after Walker had been taken away he said that he could not tell whether the latter shot him purposely or not. Frank Huskamp said he was good mark, but was considered to be in an almost desperate condition. Possibly he may recover, but if he does Dr. Meeks will consider him a hopeless case.

Dr. Heine Marks and his assistants this morning at 1 o'clock performed the operation and the patient is doing well.

The abdomen was opened and it was found that there were twelve perforations of the intestines. These were all attended to and the patient is in good condition, but was considered to be in an almost desperate condition. Possibly he may recover, but if he does Dr. Meeks will consider him a hopeless case.

Should Goodflesh die it will be hard to determine the merits of Walker's defense, as there is no question of shooting except the four persons mentioned.

The victim of the prisoner's new gun has a wife and five children, dependent upon him for support. He has the reputation of being a sober, industrious and inoffensive man.

FINED FOR SHOWING FIGHT.

Joe Levi Punished in Judge Paxson's Court.

Joe Levi, a dour little darkey, was prosecuted before Judge Paxson this morning for cutting a Hebrew lad named Rube Weinecker, who resides at Seventh and Carr streets.

Last Sunday afternoon Rube with a crowd of companions amused themselves by playing soldier in the alley in the rear of his home. They were the boys' home, and when they described Levi with two other negro boys looking for bottles in the alley, they were asked if they had any to sell. Levi then displayed their value and other members of the party used to jokingly call him "Mamma."

Col. John D. Rogers of John D. Rogers & Co. in his deposition stated that he is not the boy's father, but a good boy, but was considered to be in an almost desperate condition. Possibly he may recover, but if he does Dr. Meeks will consider him a hopeless case.

Weather forecast for thirty-six hours beginning at 5 p.m. Sunday: For Missouri—Generally fair; northerly winds, shifting to easterly; warmer in western portion.

It is much colder this morning in the Ohio Valley, the Lake Region, the Dakotas and the Great Plains. The cold air has descended so far and near the North Atlantic Coast and in the extreme Northwest. Changes have been slight in all other sections. Rain is reported from the South Atlantic states and the Gulf Coast, except Texas, and snow has fallen in the Upper Lake Region, Iowa and Southeastern Montana.

St. Louis forecast: Fair, nearly stationary temperature to-night, followed by warmer.

THE House of Delegates should insist that the dangerous wells and the well question be kept closed.

THE franchise grabs are going through the House of Delegates, but there is still time for the city to garner the fruits of repentence.

PRESIDENT WALDRIDGE's record in the Council suggests that it is just as well that he be absent when the people need protection from jobbery.

SENATORIAL elections by Legislatures are so costly that those bodies are not likely to hold the Senator responsible for making his son a committee clerk.

THE Mayor's veto of several salary increase bills shows that the fact that an administration is about to go out is sometimes an advantage in more than one way.

"NO DEMAGOGIC politician need apply"—the rule which Mr. Cleveland has adopted with regard to the Pension Commissioner is good for general application.

If Judge Ricks wants to be a legislator he should run for Congress or the State Legislature. But perhaps the corporations think he can do better service in enacting new laws where he is.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON is said to be at work on a treatise on the tariff. He is not the "uninstructed economist;" he was four years ago, but it remains to be seen whether he profited by the campaign of education.

THAT decision of Secretary Smith's that a railway company is not entitled to lands it claims is a shocking departure from precedent. What are we coming to if monopolists are not allowed to have all they want?

JUDGE DALLAS of the United States Circuit Court at Philadelphia decides that the Sugar Trust need not tell the public any of its secrets even if called on by the District Attorney. The trust seems to be under the "protection" of the court, but where is the receiver?

THE first Democratic embarrassment which the outgoing party chucked over has disappeared. There is plenty of free gold in the Treasury, and there seems to be enough gold all over the country. It is no longer interesting to know what Heidelberg, Ickelheimer & Co. are sending out.

It will probably always be an unsolved mystery why men leave lucrative employment to go to Washington, hang around the White House and departments like famished mendicants, and beg for odd jobs which in many cases do not pay as well as the business they have abandoned.

It is claimed that anhydrous ammonia can be run at one-quarter less expense than the cars of the trolley system. In some recent trial trips in New York the results were very satisfactory. As the anhydrous ammonia cars require no poles or wires there seems to be a great opening for them.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND will not appoint any of his own relatives to office, but the rule does not apply to relatives of ex-President Harrison. The ex-President's brother, Mr. J. Scott Harrison, a good man and a life-long Democrat, is said to be a candidate for Surveyor of the Port of Kansas City, and it is very likely that the new President will give his claims full consideration.

COL. ALINSWORTH who, it is said, will be made Pension Commissioner, is without political opinions. Like Artemus Ward's showman, he "has no principles." The Administration, however, will be held responsible for his management of the office, and it is probably not apprehensive.

It is very easy for the gentlemen of the Reform Club to run the country because they do not have to encounter any practical difficulties in the course of their thinking. In this respect they have a distinct advantage over Secretary Carlisle and the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, who are not permitted to think in vacuo.

THE growth of the Agricultural Department under Secretary Rusk may be inferred from the fact that the annual pay roll has been reduced $125,000 since his departure. Uncle Jerry must have hired everybody who came along; and it was very good of him to do so, because he didn't have to pay any one from his own pocket.

UNFAIR REVISION METHODS.

Not only in the method of doing the work but also in the manner of notifying those whose names are struck from the lists is the present system of revising the registration open to criticism. The law provides that the names struck off by the Board of Revision shall be published in a newspaper, where the victims may or may not see them. Usual the newspaper which contracts to do this sort of publication is an obscure sheet with a small circulation, but this merely emphasizes the folly of the method for if the circulation was the largest and if the list were published in every newspaper in the city the fact that every voter would have to read every name appearing in such publication in order to be sure that he was not disfranchised stamps the method at once as impractical, unjust and unbusinesslike.

How many citizens are there who, secure in the knowledge of the right to vote and of their proper registration, think to read the list of rejected names? What fairness is there to compel all voters to run the risk of not being notified that they have been wrongfully deprived of a right by official action? The publication method is unjust to citizens and favors fraud and partisan sharp practice in disfranchising legal voters. It gives opportunities for gross wrongs and occasions wrangles and protests which discredit the whole system of revision.

The only method of notification which meets the requirements of the case is the direct method. Citizens who are threatened with disfranchisement are entitled to direct and certain official information of such action, so that they may be heard and have some opportunity to prevent any wrongful attempt to deprive them of the privilege of voting. They are clearly entitled to this direct notification in ample time to defend their rights if unjustly assailed. It would be a simple and cheap matter for the Board of Revision to have notices sent direct to citizens who are reported as improperly registered or otherwise ineligible to vote, with a request to show cause why they should not be disfranchised.

FULLY as important as guarding the ballot-box against illegal and fraudulent voters is the guarding of the rights of those entitled to vote. Under the present crude and impractical methods of revision neither seems to be effectively done.

GIVE HIM A SEAT ON THE FLOOR.

In modern conditions it is almost impossible for a body of men like the Municipal Assembly to grant franchises intelligently, not to say honestly, without considerable advice and assistance from technical engineering and electrical experts. This was well illustrated during the debate on the Bell Telephone subway ordinance, when members of the Council pleaded ignorance of these matters and held that they were therefore obliged to rely upon the information vouchsafed by representatives of the company.

Technical testimony, however, may be ex parte, incomplete or biased. In order to bring out the whole truth the city should be able to command the services of experts competent to at least criticize the statements made in behalf of private companies seeking public privileges.

This might be accomplished by giving the President of the Board of Public Improvements a seat on the floor of the Council, there to take part in debate like the Comptroller and be ready to publicly expose the falsity or confirm the truth of interested pleas. In the case of the Comptroller this is expressly provided for in the charter, and although no specific provision is made with reference to other officers it seems to follow from art. 4, sec. 42, of the charter that an ordinance would be sufficient for the purpose. This reads as follows: "The Municipal Assembly shall provide by ordinance such additional duties and requirements from the Board of Public Improvements and its several members as it may deem necessary, and for the appointment by them of such assistants as the demands of the several departments may require."

Had the President of the board been present while the telephone and similar ordinances were pending, the debate would have been a technical discussion. The claims and assertions of the companies might have been thoroughly overhauled and material information brought out. The opposition would not have beaten the air with fruitless protests, nor would the advocates of the measures have had the convenient plea of ignorance to excuse their complaisance. The President of the Board of Public Improvements should have a seat on the floor of the Council.

THE FAIR AND THE FAIR.

To the masculine mind there is something alarming in the prominence acquired by the feminine class at the World's Fair. It looks as if woman is preparing to crowd man out. There is a possibility that masculine safety lies only in the dissensions incident to feminine organization.

A library is to be shown at the Fair containing all the books in the world that have been written by women. There are to be concerts by woman musicians, orchestras of women and matinees of music and associations of women. In the 100 congresses that are to be held women will appear to discuss the progress and purposes of civilization, and one congress is to be composed entirely of women. In connection with the Columbian gathering it is asserted that there are 45 national organizations of women in the United States, 12 in England, 8 in Germany, 2 in France and 2 in Finland. Only Spain, Russia, Turkey and a few other countries seem to have escaped the great feminine wave.

With the start which the sex will get through the Fair, there can be no estimating what it may accomplish. But, if man is in the way, he must be prepared to move on. The time may be near when his services will no longer be required beyond what he can do in agriculture or in certain manufacturing lines which may not be to the taste of all-pervading ladies. Let him, meanwhile, watch the course of events and be ready for whatever may come.

IN the Illinois Legislature last Wednesday a member of the Lower House was literally dragged from his seat on the floor, taken to the lobby and there offered $100 by the railroad people to vote their way on the bill then pending. He went back to his seat undecided as to his course, but quickly made up his mind when he learned that a fellow-member had refused $1,000 for the same service. Evidently the railroad lobbyists in Illinois have much to learn. They are making rapid progress in her chosen profession. A PHENOMENAL REFORMER.

From the Chicago Daily.

Henry George is, without question, the most phenomenal reformer of the age. On Saturday he declined to ventilate his theories of taxation before the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange on the ground that business could not spare the time to hear his theories, and he did not regard it as the proper time and place to expound his doctrines. It is the first instance on record that a man with a theory has acknowledged the precedence of business. There is hope for the country yet.

INDUCING IMMIGRATION.

What Canada Is Doing to People the Great Northwest.

OTTAWA, March 25.—A. M. Burgess, Deputy Minister of the Interior, has been examined before the Agricultural Committee on the question of immigration. He says that the progress made in inducing settlers to go to Manitoba and the Northwest on the western prairies is great. During the winter there are 200 agents operating in the United States. The result of the work was that 350 homesteads had been taken up by the newcomers. Mr. Burgess also said that there were four thousand agricultural settlers in the Northwest system of 500 to 600 of a family and 15 to the other members of the families in operation.

A bill has been passed recommending the appointment of a veterinary surgeon whose duty would be to look after the health of the live stock in the northwestern country.

Another Flood Horror in Arizona on the South Gila Canal.

SENTINEL, Ariz., March 25.—Yesterday morning a head of water from nine to eleven feet high struck the dam under construction by the South Gila Canal Co., said to be the second largest in the world, carrying away part of the masonry work, piling-pumps and pile-drivers. Great damage is thought to have been caused by the flood before it reached here. At Palomas a number of school children barely escaped with their lives. Above Palomas the flood passed during the night, so that many lives were lost. The money loss to the canal company is $4,000. Particulars of the flood are meager.

NEW YORK, N.Y.GARFIELD DERBY.*A Big Stake Which Is Shrouded in Uncertainty.*WHEN OR HOW IT WILL BE RUN IS STILL UNDECIDED.

The Nominations Include the Crack 3-Year-Olds of the Country—The Liverpool St. L. P. Steeplechase—Track and Stable Gossip—Cycling Chat—The Oar—Fas—Ball—General Sporting News.

Not much has been heard lately about the Chicago Garfield Derby as one of the great racing features of the West this year, and yet it is probably as much a fixture as the big American Derby, the St. Louis Club Members' Handicap or the Hawthorne Derby. The entries to the event were published a year ago, and, being a stake, it will have to be run if not on one track then on another. It will be worth $20,000 to the winner and will rank as one of the great races of the year. The entry list embraces a large proportion of the crack 3-year-olds, including some of the English colts, and it is altogether likely that the race will be one of the great equine events of the year in the West, as it was last season. The Garfield management is still lying low as to its intentions. There are conflicting opinions as to the effect of Harrison's election as Mayor of Chicago would have on the future of the track; some allege that his success would mean that Garfield should run all summer, but others maintain that Harrison has committed himself to restricting the race courses and that he would allow Garfield to remain open only a certain number of days. There is no provision in the conditions of the Garfield Derby for the date on which the event is to be run, and that can, therefore, be adjusted to suit the convenience of the management. Hawthorne's spring meeting begins May 16 and continues up to the opening of Washington Park. The second and last game between the St. Louis Browns and Memphis clubs will take place to-morrow at Sportman's Park. The Memphis Club gave the Browns the hardest battle they got on the trip, and they have strengthened up since the Browns met them at the end of the season. Both the Browns and Breitstein and Hawley will probably do the pitching for the Browns. Play will be at 3 o'clock.

BASEBALL.
Capt. Joe Quinn has a stiff upper lip, something that has been lacking on the St. Louis team since Comiskey's departure. There was a man on third yesterday and Hawley at the bat. A ball passed the catcher and Breitstein scored. The umpire called the ball dead and ordered Breitstein back. Quinn could not set it in his wrist, and rather than be the last to be hit, he took off his cap. Both the Browns and Nashvilles batted hard and fielded well. Crooks' field was the best in the game. The inexperience in the seventh inning was the only blemish. Hawley had the advantage, the score standing 8 to 6.

MEMPHIS TO-MORROW.
The second and last game between the St. Louis Browns and Memphis clubs will take place to-morrow at Sportman's Park. The Memphis Club gave the Browns the hardest battle they got on the trip, and they have strengthened up since the Browns met them at the end of the season. Both the Browns and Breitstein and Hawley will probably do the pitching for the Browns. Play will be at 3 o'clock.

BASEBALL GOSPI.
Memphis has an all-star team, who are likely to make showing in the Southern League race.

The Chattanooga News in referring to the Browns' victory over their team laconically says: "They made more noise."

Clarence Dow, one of the most famous statisticians who ever figured out the average of a base ball team, is dead. Comiskey carried him off.

Just Dow is reduced down to nothing. His will readily call his wonderful abilities in this regard.

Two picked teams will battle for honors at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Goodell and St. Louis avenues. Both teams have semi-professional players, and a good game is looked for.

The Bauer-Walter Base Ball Club has organized for the season with the following players: Tavelle, t. p.; Stadler, Ruppenthal, c.; Brown, t. b.; Hamilton, r. f.; Khet, l. f.; Hoffman Substitute, likely to hear from all corners. Moon Bros. presented.

The Western Amateurs have organized a team for 1893, and would like to hear from all teams under 18 years of age. The team will play at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Goodell and St. Louis avenues. Both teams have semi-professional players, and a good game is looked for.

AUSTIN GIBBONS WANTS A FIGHT.

BOSTON, March 25.—In a few days Austin Gibbons, the recent conqueror of Mike Daly, proposes to issue a sensational challenge, backed by a good-sized forfeit. In a letter to Capt. Cooke, yesterday, Jim Gibbons, his father, who is a well-known boxer, said that his son would be glad to meet a special proxy to improve upon the breed for many years past. The training a horse receives in the ring is not to be despised, he said.

The P. J. Q. has organized for the season with the following players: Tavelle, t. p.; Stadler, Ruppenthal, c.; Brown, t. b.; Hamilton, r. f.; Khet, l. f.; Hoffman Substitute, likely to hear from all clubs of 15 years. Address challenges to Wm. Hanks, 4157 Kasius avenue.

First, however, he will keep a billiard-room until he has paid off the $10,000 he owes him.

ACCIDENT ON ILLINOIS CENTRAL.

Here is a bit of information that may be of profit as well as interest to the members of the Forest Park Road-racing Association, who held such an enthusiastic meeting last night. An Eastern cycling authority says:

"I talk about appropriate names for horses," said Judge Carter, the other day, "think you'll like the names I have in mind. The greatest Jumper America has ever had, he truly was a grand looking thoroughbred, but the greatest Jumper in the world, I mean, is a colt, and he will be better looking than in England, where they have been making a special policy to improve upon the breed for many years past. The training a horse receives in the ring is not to be despised, he said.
